

The Office of the Vice Provost for Educational Equity serves as a catalyst and advocate for Penn State's diversity initiatives. Educational Equity's vision is a Penn State community that is an inclusive and welcoming environment for all.

The Office of Educational Equity:

- provides University-wide leadership for diversity strategic planning and assessment through A Framework to Foster Diversity at Penn State: 1998–2003 and 2004–09;
- supports the success of students from underrepresented/underserved populations;
- partners with internal and external clients and stakeholders to advance educational equity within Penn State;
- provides outreach to underrepresented / underserved communities within the Commonwealth.

This publication is available in alternative media on request.

The Pennsylvania State University is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to programs, facilities, admission, and employment without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, performance, or qualifications as determined by University policy or by state or federal authorities. It is the policy of the University to maintain an academic and work environment free of discrimination, including harassment. The Pennsylvania State University prohibits discrimination and harassment against any person because of age, ancestry, color, disability or handicap, national origin, race, religious creed, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Discrimination or harassment against faculty, staff, or students will not be tolerated at The Pennsylvania State University.
