

Scholarships with Specified Eligibility Criteria

Ajay and Paayal Nair Social Justice Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to undergraduate students enrolled at The Pennsylvania State University who provide outstanding leadership in activities such as, but not limited to, student government, social services, or mass media efforts at the University, and who volunteer or have developed a plan of action to contribute to the betterment and/or fair treatment of underserved populations.

Arnold and Isabel Barnes Kempton Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled at The Pennsylvania State University who are either a part of underrepresented minority groups, first-generation students, have demonstrated financial need, or from a single-parent household with a grade-point average of at least 2.5.

Bowen Family Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University who have achieved at a grade-point average of 3.0 or above and who have demonstrated financial need for funds to meet their necessary college expenses. 1. First preference shall be given to students enrolled or planning to enroll in the College of Agricultural Sciences; 2. Second preference shall be given to students enrolled or planning to enroll in the Smeal College of Business.

Cora W. and Eugene K. Wethers, Jr. Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University. First preference shall be given to students who are first-generation college students, and/or who are pursuing a course of study in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics.

Daisey Family Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students who are enrolled or planning to enroll at Penn State University park who have a demonstrated financial need and who either: 1. Promote the diversity of the student body at Penn State University Park through their participation and leadership in one of the many student organizations that advocate for and promote the well being of underrepresented populations; or 2. Are majoring in or planning to major in African American Studies.

Drs. Dale and Ona Adair Family Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students who are enrolled or planning to enroll at the University and who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to eligible recipients who are enrolled or planning to enroll in the Eberly College of Science.

Edward Thompson and Patricia Jackson-Thompson Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time graduate and undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at Penn State University Park who have achieved a minimum grade-point average of 3.0; who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to eligible recipients who are members of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Eric H. Pratt Family Trustee Scholarship for Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students whose home address of record is in Berks County, Pennsylvania.

Forrest and Ruth Fenstermaker Trustee Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students from the eligible pool who are majoring in Forest Science.

Harold E. and V. Arlene Cheatham Educational Equity Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at Penn State New Kensington or Penn State University Park who have achieved superior academic records or who manifest promise of outstanding academic success; who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students who graduate from Valley High School, New Kensington, Pennsylvania.

James P. and Barbara J. Palumbo Boodon Family Scholarships in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University who have a demonstrated financial need. From the identified pool of students, and to the extent possible, first preference shall be given to students who participated in Upward Bound or a similar program.

John Robert and Mary Anne O'Leary Memorial Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students whose home address of record is in Blair County, Pennsylvania.

Joyce J. Shorts and Troy J. Shorts Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to members of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Penico Family Trustee Scholarship for Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students enrolled or planning to enroll in the College of the Liberal Arts.

Steven and Elizabeth Singh Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University. First preference shall be given to students who are enrolled or planning to enroll in the College of Engineering.

Students with Disabilities

Andrew J. Hartman Memorial Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students of at least sophomore academic standing enrolled at The Pennsylvania State University who have achieved a grade point average of at least 2.5 and who are defined as having a disability under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended. First preference shall be given to students who live with physical disabilities or mobility conditions.

Bobbi Coulter Rich Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time or part-time students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have end stage renal disease or who are waiting to receive a kidney transplant. Eligibility can be broadened to include students with a chronic renal condition or disorder or students who have multiple disabilities.

Charlotte W. Newcombe Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University as degree-seeking students who identify as having a disability under Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act as amended. Additional criteria for consideration include demonstrated academic achievement, serious career orientation, and demonstrated financial need.

Cory A. Wincek-Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Memorial Scholarship for Students with Physical Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be to provide recognition and financial assistance to undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who live with a physical disability.

Dale and Rosaline Hollinger Scholarship for Students with Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all graduate and undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a disability. First preference shall be given to students with a physical disability.

Dale W. Hollinger-Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University who have a demonstrated financial need for funds to meet their necessary college expenses. First preference shall be given to students who are disabled as defined under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended.

David E. Gallagher-Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Memorial Endowed Trustee Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students from the eligible pool who are defined as having a disability under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended.

David R. Martino Memorial Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to any full-time student enrolled or planning to enroll at the University with a documented need for financial assistance and who is considered to have a disability under the provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act as amended.

Delta Chi Handicapped Student Grant Fund

Consideration for this grant shall be given to all graduate and/or undergraduate students currently enrolled at the University Park Campus of The Pennsylvania State University who are considered to have a disability under the provisions of Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended. Additional criteria include demonstrated academic achievement, character, leadership, and financial need.

Delta Gamma Golden Anchor Award

Consideration for this award shall be given to all students with a visual disability who have completed at least three terms at the University, have achieved a minimum grade-point average of 2.5, and who have demonstrated perseverance and strength of character.

Howard C. and Betty B. Woodring - Newcombe Foundation Scholarship for Students with Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate and graduate students enrolled The Pennsylvania State University who have a demonstrated financial need and who have a disability as defined under the provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended. Preference shall be given to students enrolled at Penn State Altoona.

Jason C. and Martha Lee Stone Scholarship in Honor of Solveig and Frederick Samuel Dietz

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time graduate and undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have achieved positive academic records or who manifest promise of academic success, who live with a physical disability, and who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to graduate students. For the purpose of this scholarship, physical disabilities shall include mobility limitations and severe vision or hearing loss.

Osaze Olufemi Osagie Memorial Scholarship for Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University, with intellectual or mental health diagnoses, who contribute to the diversity of the student body.

Perrotta Family-Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarship for Students with Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate and graduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have demonstrated financial need and who live with a disability as defined under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended. First preference shall be given to undergraduate and graduate students who meet the above mentioned criteria, who are participating in the disability recreation programs and who may have military service-connected disabilities. Students must be registered with the Student Disability Resources office and the Office of Veterans Programs at any Penn State campus.

Polis Charitable Foundation - Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarship for Students with Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate and graduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have demonstrated financial need and who live with a disability as defined under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended. Necessary college expenses can include, but are not limited to, tuition assistance and technology for the hearing impaired such as machines or interpreters. First preference shall be given to undergraduate and graduate students who meet the above mentioned criteria and who are hearing impaired.

The Charles T. and Ella Fowler Douds Scholarship Fund

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to deserving students who are enrolled as full-time students at The Pennsylvania State University, who have achieved superior academic records, and who manifest promise of future success in their field. Preference shall be given, but not limited to, applicants with chronic health problems, such as diabetes, impairment of sight or hearing, inability to walk, or other physical disabilities.

Virginia G. Rimer Memorial Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time graduate and undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have achieved superior academic records or who manifest promise of outstanding academic success and who have a disability.

Veteran Students or Dependents of Veterans

Antonio Nieves and Emily Sallack Student Success Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students who are enrolled at Penn State University Park who have demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students who have at least one family member who serves or has served in the U.S. military (or who are U.S. military students themselves), who maintain a grade-point average of at least 3.0, and who are first in their family to attend college.

Betty H. Gofus Trustee Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students who are veterans.

George W. and Joanne T. Rauchfuss Scholarship for Veterans

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University who have achieved superior academic records or who manifest promise of outstanding academic success, who have demonstrated financial need for funds to meet their necessary college expenses, and who are veterans (as defined by the U.S. Department of Education) or a documented dependent of a veteran.

James R. and Barbara J. Myler Scholarship in Educational Equity

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate United States military students enrolled or planning to enroll at the University who have achieved superior academic records or who manifest promise of outstanding academic success and who have a demonstrated financial need for funds to meet their necessary college expenses. For the purposes of this fund, "United States military students" shall be inclusive of veterans, active duty, reservists, or National Guard from all of the United States military services. First preference shall be given to students who are majoring or planning to major in Accounting or Finance, or successor degree programs.

Jerry and Jacquelyn Grossman Scholarship for U.S. Military Veterans

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who are veterans of the United States military and who have a demonstrated financial need. First preference shall be given to students enrolled in the Smeal College of Business and majoring in Finance.

Lawrence A. Tranovich Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to full-time undergraduate students majoring in or planning to major in either Mechanical Engineering or Aerospace Engineering, or successor degree programs, who have a demonstrated financial need for funds to meet their necessary college expenses, and who are either United States military students or participants in a ROTC program at the University, inclusive of veterans, active duty, reservists, or National Guard.

Perrotta Family-Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarship for Students with Disabilities

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all undergraduate and graduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have demonstrated financial need and who live with a disability as defined under provisions of Section 504, 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended. First preference shall be given to undergraduate and graduate students who meet the above mentioned criteria, who are participating in the disability recreation programs and who may have military service-connected disabilities. Students must be registered with the Student Disability Resources office and the Office of Veterans Programs at any Penn State campus.

Veterans Special Needs Endowed Scholarship

Consideration for this scholarship shall be given to all full-time graduate and undergraduate students enrolled or planning to enroll at The Pennsylvania State University who have achieved superior academic records or who manifest promise of outstanding academic success, who have a demonstrated financial need, and who are veterans (as defined by the U.S. Department of Education) or a documented dependent of a veteran.