

I'm B.O.T.H.

(Blends of Traditional Heritages)

B.O.T.H. is a group for all students who classify themselves as biracial/multiracial with one parent of African/African American descent and the other parent of Caucasian/Hispanic/Asian or other background.

The group meets to share a common experience, discuss issues pertinent to their worldview as biracial individuals, be exposed to articles, books, and documentaries focusing on biracial topics and connect with people like themselves.

NEXT MEETING: “Dating Across Racial Lines: Who Should I Choose and What Will People Think?”

Sunday, Nov. 11th, 8:00 pm-9:30 pm

Multicultural Resource Center, 122 Grange Building
