BIAS INCIDENT REPORT RESPONSE PROTOCOL
Office of the Vice Provost for Educational Equity
Updated 2-19-2024

The Bias Report Network

The Bias Incident Response Protocol is a deliberation and referral process that determines the appropriate step to refer reports of reported bias incidents at Penn State. The protocol is applied by the Bias Report Network (BRN), which is composed of key university stakeholders, including representatives from:

- Educational Equity
- Student Affairs Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Office of Student Accountability and Conflict Response
- Undergraduate Education
- Faculty Affairs
- The Graduate School
- Office of Equal Opportunity and Access
- Labor and Employee Relations

The Office of the Vice Provost for Educational Equity is charged with coordination of the Bias Report Network and implementation of the protocol. The Bias Reporting Coordinator resides in the Office of the Vice Provost for Educational Equity and reports to the Associate Vice Provost for Educational Equity. The Bias Reporting Coordinator:

- serves as the primary point of contact for the protocol
- receives all reports submitted using the Report Bias online form
- manages the report referral system and maintains related data
- coordinates the Bias Report Network
- maintains the Report Bias website
- compiles annual reports on bias incidents at Penn State

Scope of function

The Protocol does not resolve issues raised in bias reports, nor does it supersede the responsibilities of offices or units that currently respond to reported incidents of bias. Rather, it complements the work of these offices by providing a centralized method for reporting bias incidents and referring reporters to appropriate resources.

The Bias Report Network is not a sanctioning body. It does not:

- investigate reports
- determine whether reported concerns violate Penn State policy
- recommend actions or solutions
- adjudicate cases
- discipline alleged wrongdoers or impose sanctions
Disciplinary action may be taken by the Office of Equal Opportunity and Access, the Office of Student Accountability and Conflict Response, or other relevant administrative units as warranted.

Incident response steps

- A bias report is submitted through the online bias incident report form.
- The report is automatically received by all members of the BRN.
- The reporter receives an automated confirmation of receipt of the report.
- Within the next business day, the Bias Reporting Coordinator sends the submitter an email confirmation of receipt and a list of applicable support services that the reporting party may use at their discretion. These resources may include:
  - Center for Sexual and Gender Diversity
  - Counseling and Psychological Services
  - Gender Equity Center
  - Graduate Student Life and Well-Being
  - Office of Veterans Programs
  - Multicultural Resource Center
  - Paul Robeson Cultural Center
  - Student Care and Advocacy
  - Student Disability Resource
  - Student Legal Services
- If the report contains information that requires a referral to Title IX, OSMRR, BTMT, or UPPS, these reports are made immediately after the report has been reviewed by the Bias Reporting Coordinator and Associate Vice Provost for Educational Equity.
- The BRN meets weekly to discuss the reports received within the previous week, and to determine the referral path for each report.
- The Bias Reporting Coordinator refers the report to the appropriate party. Referrals depend on the content of the submitted report, the University affiliation of the alleged wrongdoer, and the campus location of the reported incident. Referrals may include:
  - Academic unit heads
  - Non-academic unit heads
  - Office of Equal Opportunity and Access
  - Ethics and Compliance
  - Directors of Student Affairs/Student Services and Engagement (Commonwealth campuses)
  - Office of Student Accountability and Conflict Response
  - Residence Life
  - University Police and Public Safety
- If the reporter requests action, suggestions for offices to consult in the management and resolution of the reported concern are provided to the referee. Such recommendations depend on the content of the submitted report and may include units such as the Office of Equal Opportunity and Access, Faculty Affairs, Labor and Employee Relations, Residence Life, University Police & Public Safety, and others.
• The Bias Reporting Coordinator notifies the reporter of the referral and provides the contact information of the individual to whom the report was referred.
• The individual or unit the report is referred to reviews the report, contacts the reporter and affiliated parties (targeted individual, alleged wrongdoer), and determines a path to respond to the report. If the individual/unit needs more than two weeks, they can request more time to respond.

Neither submitters nor targeted individuals are privy to information about outcomes.

Confidentiality and privacy

The BRN does not disclose information from reports except to select University employee(s) involved in resolving reports. Report Bias maintains an electronic record of reports and services provided to reporters, targeted individuals, and alleged wrongdoers. If the information in the report involves sexual misconduct as defined in PSU policy AD85 or AD91, then this information is confidential and will be shared only with the Office of Sexual Misconduct Reporting and Response (OSMRR).

Limits to confidentiality include:

Life-threatening risk: If we believe the reporter poses a life-threatening risk to themself or others, we may need to notify responsible individuals for your protection.

Child abuse reporting: We may be required by Pennsylvania law (Act 31 of 2014) to report the following types of child abuse (depending on the nature and date of abuse) to PA Child Protective Services (and Penn State) if we have reasonable cause to suspect that a child (a person who is currently less than 18 years of age) has been the victim of child abuse:

a) If the reporter is less than 18 years of age and discloses that they are the victim of child abuse.

b) If the reporter discloses that an identifiable child has been the victim of child abuse. A report may be required even if we do not meet with the child.

c) If the reporter discloses that they abused a child when they were 14 years of age or older. A report may be required even if the victim is no longer in danger.

Clery Act: If the information being shared occurred in a Clery Act location and is a Clery Act offense (rape, fondling, incest, statutory rape, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking), we will need to file a Campus Security report with the Clery office. However, this does not include personally identifiable information.

Court order or search warrant: Information may be required to be disclosed as a result of a court order or search warrant in connection with judicial proceedings.

Definitions

As defined by AD91 Discrimination and Harassment and Related Inappropriate Conduct:

• Act of Bias. Behavior that is motivated by bias against or hatred toward other individuals or groups based on actual or perceived age, race, color, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, physical or mental disability, religion, creed, service in the uniformed services (as defined in state and federal law), veteran status, marital or family status, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, genetic information or political ideas.

- Discrimination. Conduct of any nature that denies an individual the opportunity to participate in or benefit from a University program or activity, or otherwise adversely affects a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education, or living environment, because of the individual’s actual or perceived age, race, color, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, physical or mental disability, religion, creed, service in the uniformed services (as defined in state and federal law), veteran status, marital or family status, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, genetic information or political ideas.

- Harassment. Behavior consisting of physical or verbal conduct, including Acts of Bias, that is sufficiently severe or pervasive such that it substantially interferes with an individual’s employment, education or access to University programs, activities or opportunities and would detrimentally affect a reasonable person under the same circumstances. Harassment may include, but is not limited to, verbal or physical attacks, graphic or written statements, threats, or the use of slurs or other derogatory language/statements in reference to others. Whether the alleged conduct constitutes prohibited harassment depends on the totality of the particular circumstances, including the nature, frequency, and duration of the conduct in question, the location and context in which it occurs, and the status of the individuals involved. Harassment also includes conduct, excluding conduct of a physical or sexual nature, which occurs within a romantic or intimate relationship when it would have the effect on a reasonable person of creating fear, isolation, or unreasonable power or control over access to resources, education, or work.

As defined by AD67 Disclosure of Wrongful Conduct and Protection from Retaliation:

- Retaliation. Any adverse action taken by a member of the University faculty, staff, or student body against any individual on the basis of a Good Faith Report made by such individual, or on the basis of such individual’s participation in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry by the University or an Appropriate Authority, or participation in a court proceeding relating to suspected Wrongful Conduct at the University. Retaliation shall include, but not be limited to, harassment, discrimination, threats of physical harm, job termination, punitive work schedule or research assignments, decrease in pay or responsibilities, or negative impact on academic progress.

Specific referral conditions

- If the incident involves an emergency or crisis situation, criminal behavior, or a threat to the overall campus community, the bias reporting coordinator contacts University Police & Public Safety immediately and submits a report to the Behavioral Threat Management Team (BTMT).

- Clery reportable crimes are reported immediately to UPPS via a Clery Incident Report Form. Report statistics are included in an annual report provided to the Clery Act Compliance Team.

- If the reported incident meets the definition of discrimination as defined by the Office of Equal Opportunity and Access, the report is referred to OEOA.
• If the incident involves on- or off-campus misconduct that includes sexual or gender-based harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, stalking, or retaliation for reporting any of these acts, the bias reporting coordinator submits a report to the Office of Sexual Misconduct Reporting & Response (Title IX – students) or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Access (Title IX – faculty and staff).

• If the alleged wrongdoer is a student and the incident may involve a violation of the Code of Conduct, a report is submitted to the Office of Student Accountability and Conflict Response.

• If the reported incident occurred in an on-campus housing facility, Residence Life is informed.

• If the reported incident occurred off-campus or via social media, the appropriate next steps, if any, will be determined on a case-by-case basis, depending on the circumstances of the reported incident.
